

SUNDAY
MAY 2, 2010
9:45 AM

Andrew Silow-Carroll

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF OF THE NEW JERSEY JEWISH NEWS

“BIASED OR CLUELESS?”

JEWISH DISTRUST OF THE MAINSTREAM PRESS

Andrew Silow-Carroll is widely regarded as an insightful, engaging, and witty commentator on trends in American Jewish life, the press, pop culture, religion, humor, and the arts. His weekly column appears regularly in the Jerusalem Post and in Jewish newspapers across the country.

Mr. Silow-Carroll will look at recent and classic examples of Mideast reporting, and ask what ways the reports are inaccurate or subjective.

Come and hear things you can do to improve a local media outlet's understanding of the Middle East.

Q & A will follow the Presentation
Breakfast Buffet will be served.

PROGRAM COST
TEMPLE MEMBERS: $10 NON-MEMBERS: $15

Please RSVP to your Evite Invitation or to the Temple Office 201-891-4466
by April 29, 2010

If needed, babysitting will be provided.

Distinguished Speakers Series Patrons are welcomed.
Contact Sharon Rubin, Shar6on@aol.com